

Sumner County

Douglass-Clark House, Owned by Sumner County Government

Contact: Kim Ark, Grant Administrator, kark@sumner.tn.org, 615-442-1163

Location: 2115 Long Hollow Pike, Gallatin, TN 37066

On National Register of Historic Places

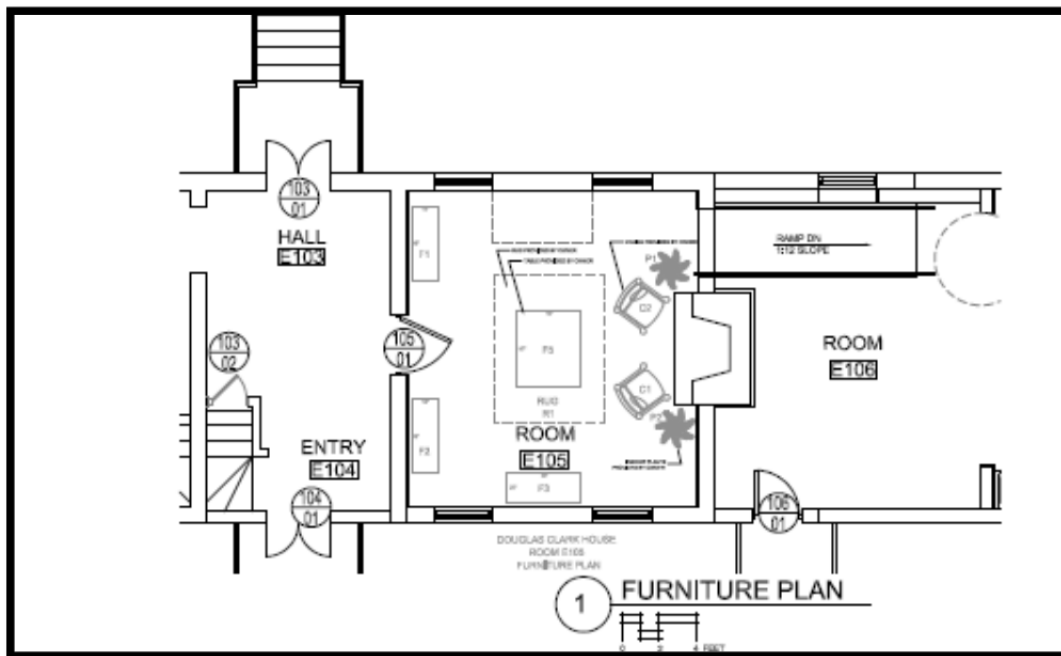

Sumner County is currently completing restoration of the Douglass-Clark House TDOT Pin 113926; the house and project site has been cleared environmentally. Once restoration is completed, the first floor of the house will be a visitor's and interpretive center. Site will be ADA accessible.

County Executive: Anthony Holt

Interior suggestion: Renovated display area

Renovation of Douglass-Clark House at corner of Lower Station Camp Creek Road

The display area will be located in either Room E105 and/or E106.

Plans by Cassetty Architecture Sheet A8.1 Figure 1

Douglass-Clark House Photos: Exterior:

Above: Exterior photo post lead and asbestos removal – West Side of house - Picture taken February 10, 2012.

Above: Exterior photo post lead and asbestos removal – East Side of House - Picture taken February 10, 2012.

Interior Photos: Douglass-Clark House potential display areas

Room E107 former Kitchen, will be main entrance room for house once restoration is complete. Pic 12/15/2012

Room E107 former Kitchen – will be main entrance room for house once restoration is complete Pic 12/15/2012

Room E105

Room E105 potential display area

Room E105 potential display area wall – once restoration is complete this room will have drywall.

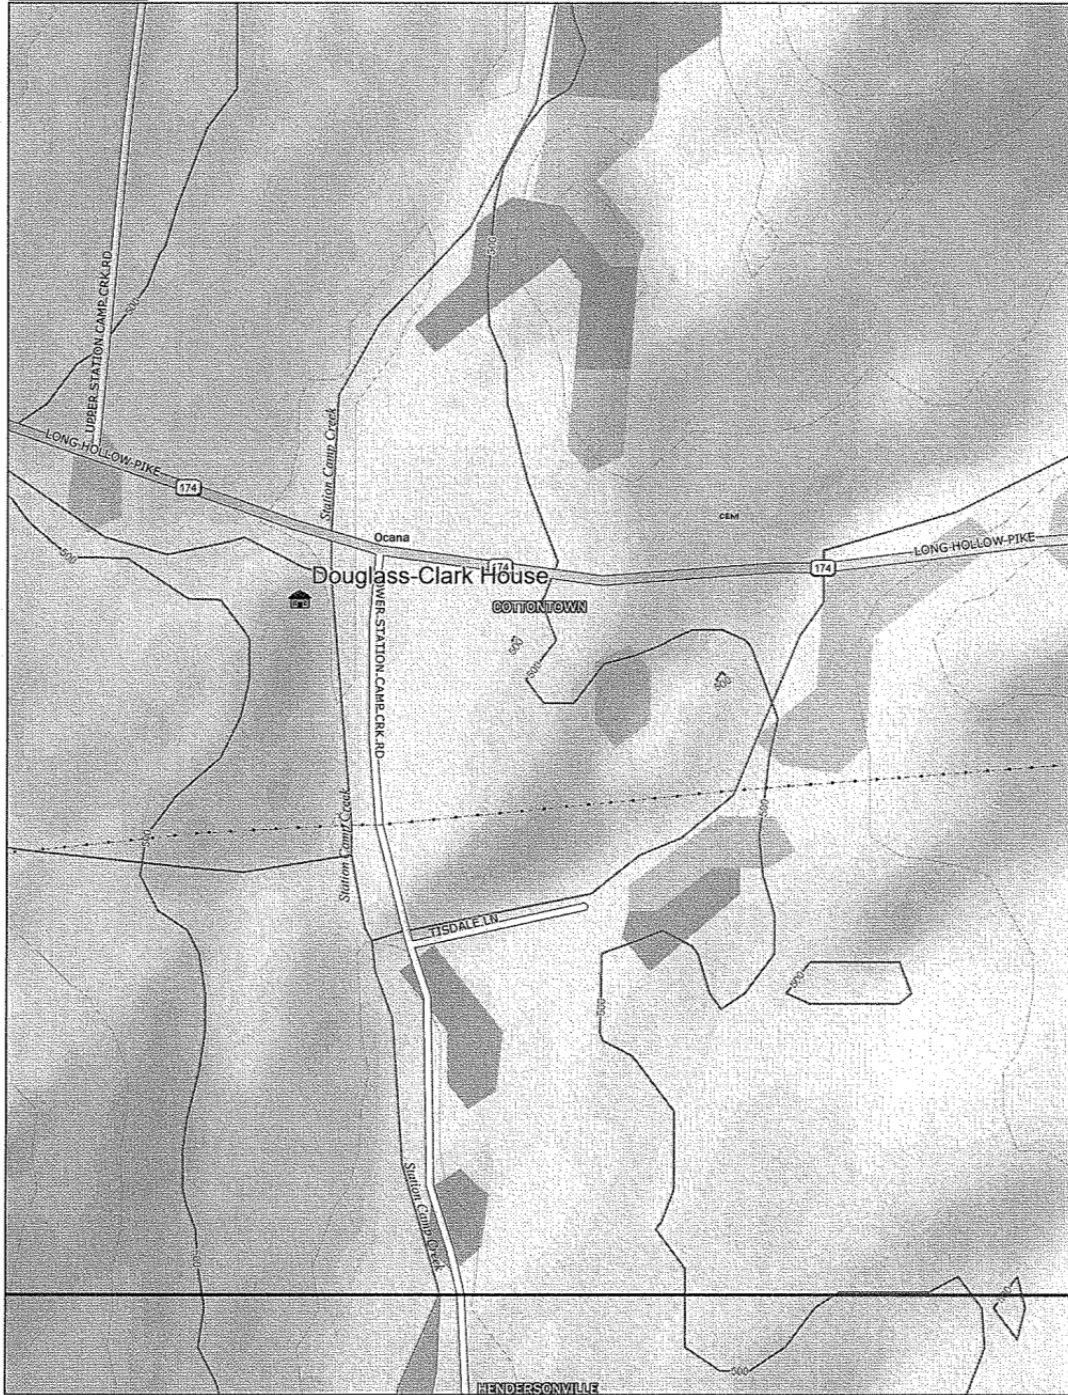

Room E106

Room E106 potential display area – Picture from 8/9/2011

Room E106 potential display area - Picture from spring 2011, Lathe has been removed. See above picture.

Data use subject to license.
 © DeLorme. Topo North America™ 9.
 www.delorme.com

↑ TN
 30° 0' 0" N
 82° 0' 0" W
Cottontown Quail

